URGENT CHANGES

TO JUNIOR CONCERT – 6th FEBRUARY 2010

Lower School Hall, Prospect School, Honey End Lane

Dear Parents

28 January 2010

We are sorry to have to make this late change to the planned Junior Concert. Unfortunately due to larger numbers of performers than previously thought, we have had to split the concert into two. There will now be two concerts at 3.45pm and 5.00pm. Each concert should last between 30 and 45 minutes at the most so we hope this won't inconvenience you too much.

The ensembles performing in each concert will be as follows (correct running order):

3.45pm Concert

Burghfield Guitars
West and North Reading Junior Woodwind Ensembles
Junior Choir
Arnold Band

5.00pm Concert

Farnaby Brass Bands (East and West),
East Reading Junior Woodwind Ensemble
Clarke Band
Junior Wind Band

Rehearsal times (in the Lower School Hall) will remain the same except for East Reading Junior Woodwind who will now rehearse at 4.30pm and not 2.15pm as previously stated.

Farnaby Brass Bands	2.30 – 2.50pm
West Reading Junior Woodwind and North Reading Junior Woodwind Guitars	2.50 – 3.10pm 3.10 – 3.30pm

Tickets:

We have reduced the ticket price to reflect the shorter concert – they will now be £3.00 adults and £1.00 for concessions. If you have already bought tickets, we will be happy to refund you 50p for each ticket purchased. Just to remind you that they are available from the Music Centre Area Office and Saturday Morning Tuck Shop or by email to laurenbolton@berkshiremaestros.org.uk. We still have large numbers of performers in these concerts and, as we said in our last letter, numbers of seats are restricted by the school so please be thoughtful and don't invite masses of friends and relations - we don't want anybody to miss watching their children perform. Please try and buy or order your tickets early.

Again, we apologise for these last minute changes. Please let your child's ensemble director know if you have any problem with these new arrangements.
